

HOUSING FOR THE REST OF US

Introducing the Berkeley Progressive Alliance and our Affordable Housing Platform

Sunday, March 6th, 2 to 4:30 pm

South Berkeley Senior Center, 2939 Ellis Street at Ashby

Oxford Plaza, energy efficient affordable housing built in 2009 at a comfortable scale. Since 2009, almost no affordable housing has been built, for lack of committed funding for the Berkeley Housing Trust Fund

THERE IS A SOLUTION TO THE AFFORDABLE HOUSING CRISIS

Berkeley could build at least 100 units of affordable housing a year, if we raise funds for the Housing Trust Fund. Hear about practical solutions that will raise the money needed. Prepare for the 2016 Election by making plans to elect a mayor, city council members, and rent board commissioners who will represent all of us, not just the 1%. Speakers include:

- Max Anderson - Berkeley City Councilmember District 3 (South Berkeley)
- Ben Bartlett - member, Berkeley Planning Commission and District 3 City Council candidate
- Kate Harrison, Berkeley Progressive Alliance and National/State Politics Chair of the Wellstone Democratic Renewal Club

Refreshments and childcare provided (RSVP for childcare to: cpapermaster@gmail.com)

Sponsored by: Berkeley Progressive Alliance, Berkeley Citizens Action, Berkeley Tenants Union, Better Berkeley Working Group
